OOI QIAOYAN

Profile

I'm currently a fresh graduate student who has pursued a degree in Information Security at SiT (Singapore Institute of Technology). My passion for IT such as Web Development sparked during my undergraduate studies, where I delved deep into various aspects of IT and its applications. Besides my academic pursuits, I actively engage in hands-on projects to complement my theoretical knowledge and applied to my personal portfolio. Looking ahead, I'm eager to leverage my education and experiences to contribute meaningfully to the field of IT. I aspire to work in a dynamic environment where I can apply my skills to real time projects.
